Dec. 5, 2014

Dear friends,

On behalf of the CIPA 2015 organizing committee, we are pleased to invite you to participate in the CIPA2015 symposium which will commence on August 31, 2015 and run through September 4, 2015 in the city of Taipei.

1. Call for Papers
   Papers will be submitted in two types: Full papers and extended abstracts. The submission deadline for double-blind peer-review is February 28, 2015. Please prepare and submit your unique research for this symposium between December 1, 2014 and February 28, 2015. Detailed information can be found on our web site: http://www.cipa2015.org.

2. Workshops
   The workshops will take place from August 28 to August 30, 2015. The range of topics fall into four categories, including:
   - August 28 and 29, 2015 Workshop of ITN-DCH: Dr. Marinos Ioannides, Chair of the Digital Heritage lab of the Cyprus University of Technology and Dr. Dieter Fritsch, the head of the Institute for Photogrammetry at the University of Stuttgart, will moderate the following workshop: Application of Digital Technology in Cultural Heritage Conservation.
   - August 30, 2015 Workshop of CIPA: Dr. Fabio Remondino, ISPRS-Technical Commission 5 President, will moderate the following workshop: Dense Image Matching for 3D Reconstruction.
   - August 30, 2015 Workshop of Arches: Dr. David Myers, Senior Project Specialist and Manager on Getty Conservation Institute, will moderate the following workshop: Arches, Management of Cultural Heritage by GIS Platform.
   - August 30, 2015 Workshop on Historic District, Recording, and Conservation: Dr. Tung-Ming Lee, Assistant Professor of Department of Interior Design at China University of Technology, will moderate the following workshop: Historic District, Recording, and Conservation – taking Dihua Street as an example.

3. Keynote Speakers
   We have already invited several prominent figures in cultural heritage conservation from around the world. Relevant information will be posted on the symposium website very soon.

We greatly look forward to welcoming you at our international conference.

Sincerely,

Alex, Ya-Ning Yen
